DIGITAL RECORDERS, INC. ANNOUNCES ORDER FOR MOBITEC® PRODUCTS

Retrofit Order for Bus and Tram Vehicles in Estonia Valued at More Than $900,000 USD

DALLAS, May 8, 2007 -- Digital Recorders, Inc. (NASDAQ: TBUS), a digital communications technology leader in the domestic and international public transportation and transit security markets, announced today that its Mobitec AB (Mobitec) subsidiary in Sweden has received an order for Mobitec® electronic destination sign systems valued at more than $900,000 USD through a strategic relationship with another transit information systems supplier in Sweden.

“The Baltic States market is among several new or expanding markets we have identified in our strategic plans for 2007 and 2008. With this record-making retrofit order for Tallinn, Estonia, we believe that our Mobitec team has made significant progress in achieving this strategic goal. We expect delivery for the Tallinn order to begin in second quarter 2007 and to conclude in first quarter 2008,” David L. Turney, the Company’s Chairman, President, and Chief Executive Officer, said.

ABOUT MOBITEC AB

A premier supplier of electronic destination sign systems in the Nordic markets, the Company’s Mobitec AB subsidiary is highly respected for its products, technology, service, and quality. Based in Herrljunga, Sweden, Mobitec AB has business units in Australia and Germany, as well as a 50 percent owned venture in Brazil. The Company’s acquisition of Mobitec AB in June 2001 significantly expanded its geographical reach.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

Digital Recorders, Inc. is a digital communications technology leader in the domestic and international public transportation and transit security markets. Our products include: TwinVision® and Mobitec® electronic destination sign systems, Talking Bus® voice announcement systems, Digital Recorders® Internet-based passenger information and automatic vehicle location/monitoring systems, and VacTell™ video actionable intelligence systems. Our products help increase the mobility, flow, safety, and security of people who rely upon transportation infrastructure around the globe. Using proprietary hardware and software applications, our products provide easy-to-understand, real-time information that assists users and operators of transit bus and rail vehicles in locating, identifying, boarding, tracking, scheduling, and managing those vehicles. Our products also aid transit vehicle operators in their quest to increase ridership and reduce fuel consumption, as well as to identify and mitigate security risks on transit vehicles. Positioned not only to serve and address mobility, energy conservation, and environmental concerns, our products also serve the growing U.S. Homeland Security market. FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This press release contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In particular, statements concerning the timing and amount of the Mobitec® order or its expected delivery and installation dates, our belief that the Baltic States market presents potentially new or expanded marketplaces for our goods and services, and our belief that this order fits in with achieving our 2007 and 2008 strategic goals, as well as any statement, express or implied, concerning future events or expectations, is a forward-looking statement. Use of words such as “expect,” “fully expect,” “expected,” “appears,” “believe,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “would,” “goal,” “potential,” “potentially,” “range,” “pursuit,” “run rate,” “stronger,” “preliminarily,” etc., is intended to identify forward-looking statements that are subject to risks and uncertainties, including risks and uncertainties that the assumptions behind the Mobitec® orders, delivery and installation, risks that the Baltic States market may not represent a new or expanded market for our goods and services, and risks that this order may not significantly contribute to our 2007 and 2008 strategic goals, as well as other risks and uncertainties set forth in our Annual Report on Form 10-K filed March 28, 2007, particularly those identified in Risk Factors Affecting Our Business. There can be no assurance that any expectation, express or implied, in a forward-looking statement will prove correct or that the contemplated event or result will occur as anticipated.
